

Crosswalk Safety at a Traffic Signal

A green traffic signal indicates it is safe to proceed straight ahead through an intersection, providing your traffic lane is clear of traffic and pedestrians.

A green traffic arrow indicates it is safe to turn in the direction of the traffic signal arrow, providing your traffic lane is clear of traffic and pedestrians.

However, when proceeding to turn with a green traffic signal indication, vehicles must yield to pedestrians in the crosswalk.

